Ten tips to enjoying Chicago...

How much to tip?

Taxidrivers: 30¢-50¢ downtown, 10% to and from airports.
Hotel doormen and porters: 75¢ or $1.00 per bag.

What direction am I going?

Lake Michigan is east. If it is to your left, you are facing south.
If it is to your right, you are facing north.

How about addresses?

All numbers begin at the corner of State and Madison.
North or South refers to the distance from Madison Street.
East or West refers to the distance from State Street.

How about a snack?

State Street vendors sell popcorn, coffee & doughnuts, hot cookies, baked goods, hot pretzels and more.

Four Famous Freebies

1. Chicago Academy of Sciences
2. Museum of Science and Industry
3. Chicago Public Library Cultural Center
4. Lincoln Park Conservatory

How much is a phone call?

Twenty cents. No coins are needed for emergencies.
Area Code for Chicago is 312.

How about buses?

Fare is 90¢, $1.00 with transfer. Shuttle fare of 60¢ available at certain times. Exact change only; no dollar bills.

To reach State Street and Michigan Avenue from Union Station daily, take #151 Sheridan. The #157 Streeterville Shuttle operates from Union and NorthWestern Stations to Michigan Avenue Monday through Saturday. The #11 Lincoln operates weekdays along State Street south of Wacker Drive, and along Michigan Avenue via Wacker Drive to Chicago Avenue at the Water Tower.

How long does it take to go from State Street to Water Tower?

Approximately 25 minutes by foot, 15 minutes by bus.

What if I lose something?

If you lose yourself, call the Illinois Tourist Information Center at 793-2094.

If you lose a package, call the store where you think you left it.
If you lose a child, call the Chicago Police Department at 744-4000.

If you lose your mind, sit down and relax.

What about facilities for the handicapped?

Call the City of Chicago Office of Senior Citizens and Handicapped at 744-4016 for information.
